Brian Gallagher's dedication to justice is rooted in his ability to forge personal connections and understand the narratives behind every case. His transparency in communication, stands as a testament to his honesty and reliability.

Achieving a no-cause verdict in his first solo jury trial was a pivotal moment for Brian Gallagher, affirming years of work honing his craft. Throughout his career, Brian has explored various practice areas, from delving into eminent domain as a law clerk to spearheading cases in personal injury, automobile negligence, and no-fault PIP. Brian's broad spectrum of experience molded him into a comprehensive and versatile attorney, proficient in the intricacies of diverse legal sectors.

At Zausmer, Brian's primary focus is on PIP, auto negligence, and both uninsured and underinsured motorist claims. His time as a Judicial Intern under the esteemed Honorable Maria L. Oxholm endowed him with detailed insights into Michigan civil litigation processes. This foundational knowledge amplifies the depth and precision of his approach to legal strategy.

Outside of his legal pursuits, Brian's interests are diverse. He recently undertook a DIY basement remodel, exemplifying his proactive and hands-on nature. With two Michigan High School State Football Championships under his belt, Brian's competitive spirit shines through. His enthusiasm for both sports and rock concerts adds a unique dimension, bringing renewed energy and diverse perspectives to his professional endeavors.
