

SENIOR ATTORNEY

Chenchen (Nancy) Lu

(248) 970-7034
clu@zausmer.com

Nancy draws on almost a decade of experience in Michigan courts to deliver prompt, strategic counsel in insurance defense matters.

Nancy serves clients with a clear goal: to resolve disputes efficiently and effectively. She handles a broad range of no-fault and personal injury protection matters, including fraud, coverage disputes, and bad faith claims.

Nancy has served as attorney of record for both first-party and third-party cases, appearing in district and circuit courts throughout the state. She is recognized for her meticulous preparation and ability to distill complex legal issues into actionable advice. She prioritizes communication and adapts legal strategies to reflect real-time developments and clients value her responsiveness and clarity.

Nancy holds dual J.D. degrees from the University of Windsor and the University of Detroit Mercy. Her undergraduate studies in business sharpened her understanding of financial issues in litigation. She is admitted to practice in both Michigan and Ontario, bringing a cross-border perspective to her work.

Beyond the office, Nancy volunteered in the 2025 Ontario elections and is fluent in Mandarin, with working knowledge of French. A professional pianist and violinist, she enjoys spending time with family and exploring new travel destinations.
